Island, Virginia and Elsewhere.

New York, Nov. 8.—Tammany met defeat in its earnest efforts to elect James W. Osborne to the district attorneyship of New York county, and saved the mayorship of the city by probably a few thousand votes. In indications are that George B. Mc-Clellan (Dem.) has been re-elected mayor for a fourth year's term, and that William T. Jerome (Ind.) has been re-elected district attorney. The extent to which the Tammany organization was shaken may be judged from the fact that there was no fusion of the opposition parties, the means by which the organization has been combated heretofore, but that Jerome

GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN.

running as a candidate of no party and with his record in office as his platform, succeeded in overcoming the former prestige of the Democratic organization, and William R. Hearst standing as the nominee of the Municipal Ownership League, a new factor in New York politics, came within a few thousand votes of being elected mayor.

W. R. Hearst has issued the following statement: "We have won this election. All Tammany's frauds, all Tammany's corruption, all Tammany's intimidation and violence, all Tammany's false registration, illegal voting and dishonest count have not been able to overcome a great popular majority. The recount will show that we have won the election by many thousands of votes. I shall fight this battle to the end, in behalf of the people who have cast their votes for me, and who shall not be disenfranchised by any effort of criminal bosses."

An analysis of the vote for mayor shows that Hearst polled a little more than 200,000 votes, and that apparently these votes were drawn almost equally from the Democratic and Republican parties. McClellan's vote this year was about 110,000 smaller than his vote of two years ago, while Ivins' vote was about 135,000 smaller than Low's vote of two years ago.
These figures, however, may not be entirely accurate, owing to the fact that a number of Republicans probably voted for McClellan in order to aid in the defeat of Hearst.

Bird S. Coler was elected borough president of Brooklyn on municipal ownership ticket, and Hearst carried that borough by a plurality of 15,028.

Hearst's large vote shows that the Municipal Ownership League must be reckoned with as a factor in the city's politics. Coler's election as president of the borough of Brooklyn gives the League representation on the board of estimate and apportionment, which has control of the city's expenditures.
It is estimated that this board will direct the outlay of $900,000,000 during the next four years.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—The Republicans made a clean sweep of the election in Chicago and Cook county, electing all of their candidates with the exception of one man. The sole Democrat to reach the promised land was Webb, a candidate for trustee of the sanitary district. The Republicans elected four judges of the superior court by plu-ralities ranging from 20,000 to 25,000, one judge to fill a vacancy on the bench of the superior court by a plurality of about 1,000, a judge of the circuit court by 10,000, and eight out of nine members of the board of sanitary trustees by pluralities ranging from 1,000 to 5,000. A number of important questions were up for consideration by the voters, and all of them were carried by large majorities. They included an amendment to the charter of the city by virtue of which the term of the mayor of the city is lengthened from two to four years, the abolition of the present system of justice courts, the creation of a forest reserve in Cook county, the right of the city to regulate the prices of gas, and authority to operate an electric light plant and sell to private consumers all of the current not used for municipal purposes.

PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Philadelphia has been swept by the reform movement, the city party ticket winning by a surprisingly large plurality. The defeat of the Republican local ticket is conceded to be 60,000 to 75,000 plurality. The victory of the city party ticket carried with it the election of W. H. Berry, Democratic reformer and reform candidate for state treasurer, J. Lee Plummer, Republican candidate for state treasurer, who was badly out of the race, and state, and he has lost his seat, which is usually held by a Democrat. Berry has appeared in the city, but throughout the campaign he has been out of the city.

Boston, Nov. 8.—Lieutenant Governor Curtis D. Quirk, Jr., of Boston, the Republican candidate, was elected governor of Massachusetts in the state election by a plurality of 23,435 over Charles W. Bartlett of Boston, the Democratic candidate. For the second place on the ticket, for which there was an unusually warm contest, Eben S. Hooper of Hopedale, the Republican candidate, won over Henry M. Whitney of Brookline, his Democratic opponent, and the leading advocate for reciprocity, by a plurality of 3,942. The total vote for the two leading candidates was: Governor, Quirk (Rep.) 203,334; Bartlett (Dem.) 174, 399; lieutenant governor, Draper (Rep.) 184,534; Whitney (Dem.) 180, 592. The Republicans also elected seven of the eight members of the executive council, and the usual large majority in both branches of the legislature.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Returns from various parts of the state indicate the election of Berry (Dem.) for state treasurer by a large plurality. Republican strongholds are showing unexpected gains for Berry. Lancaster county, normally Republican by 10, 000, is in doubt. Dauphin county, in which Harrisburg, the state capital, is located, another Republican stronghold, gives Berry 1,500 plurality.

Other Republican counties show the same enormous Republican losses.
Berry, nominated as a Democrat, was endorsed by the Independent Republicans and the Prohibitionists. In this city the Lincoln party, formed by the Independents, gave Berry a tremendous vote. The state treasury has been under Republican control since 1880. Roosevelt's plurality last year was 508,000.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Claude T.
Swanson, Democrat, was elected governor of Virginia by about 20,000 plurality over Judge T. L. Lewis, the Republican candidate. The vote everywhere was exceedingly light, but Democratic apathy was offset by unfavorable conditions on the other side. The negroes throughout the state abstained from voting almost entirely.
The Republicans gain a few members of the legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS.

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—The election of Former Mayor Charles A. Book-walter as mayor of Indianapolis is conceded. The latest returns give Bookwalter (Rep.) 23,775, Holtzman (Dem.), for re-election, 22,177. Bookwalter's plurality 1,598. The vote for George Hitz, Prohibition candidate, cannot be estimated at this hour.

LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—The election of the entire Democratic city and county ticket and 10 Democratic members of the legislature is generally conceded by pluralities ranging from 3,500 to 7,000.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—The polls in Louisville closed after a day of great disorder. About a round dozen of prominent citizens and a large number of lesser lights who worked for the fusion ticket were jailed by the police. It is estimated that a fair election was either totally or partially prevented in one-fourth of the 375 polling places in the city of Louisville.
A number of persons were injured in riots, the most serious of which occurred at Eighth and Market streets, where one Democrat's worker was shot and four prominent citizens severely clubbed.

November 7th, 1905, is past and the excellency and nobility of manhood have prevailed. The spirit of truth and reason is reveling in the hearts and minds of the good citizens of Breathitt, with the spirit of liberty and freedom and their souls are feasting on the good things to come, as the days, months and years of the incoming administration rolls by, the altar of the Living God, will be rebuilt, and the high places and altars of Baal be swept from among us and an acceptable offering as the life of man be offered before the Lord. The good citizens of Breathitt county have reasoned well their lots, clearly viewed their situations and acted most nobly and wisely. The Eternal Father has mysteriously moved in the hearts and minds of the people His mysteries to perform, as He always does when the people seek to know and do His will. He is the great benefactor; then, fellow citizens, be careful not to describe your praise to the successful candidates instead of Him who rules our lives and destinies, and moves but to perform some good; and you, elected officials, claim not this glory to yourselves, but glorify the Author of eternal light, and let the authority entrusted to you be to honor the Giver of all good and perfect gifts. Much is expected of you by your fellow beings, and great is the waste to be repaired. God has given you this work to do, so learn wisdom from the past, and know that to honor God is to honor yourselves, and to do the will of God is the duty of man.

The election is now over and the victory of the people is complete. The people rose en masse with a stamp of repudiation that bore nothing of doubt and accepted nothing of the denial; the hand of the Almighty working through the sacredness of suffrage; a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night, leading an oppressed and benighted people from Egyptian bondage to a deliverance glorious and complete. Some doubted, some feared, some shuddered when thinking of the crash that should come with the overthrow of tyranny and misrule in the county, but when it came the victors were sober and self-poised and the vanquished accepted gracefully a defeat. Gracefully, for there was no reason, no escape, no appeal. But we have not come today to voice the will of the successful party in any acclaim or boast of victory, nor with any threat of oppression to the defeated side, but it is for the purpose of assuring the people who have so wisely chosen that the coming administration will look to the needs and supply the wants of a neglected people; not to say to the adversary that we have defeated you and now we will oppress, but to bring the assurance that the people shall have liberty through law, since laws are made for liberty, and that equal aid and full justice will be done to all without regard to past party associations, and with this election Breathitt county enters upon a new era, a golden dawn tints and tinges the east, and in the very being and heart of the people a voice of gladness is heard; a county, once burdened with crime now enters upon a living way, and the people may now lay down the ballot and take up the ax, with the confidence that home and life will be secure. Under these conditions, and with this new order of things let us act with discretion for the good of a conflicting people and fulfill as best we can the promises of reform and peace.

The patriotism of the citizens of Breathitt county has risen as high above prejudice as the heavens are above the earth. On the 7th instant, royalty burst forth from more than eighty per cent. of the citizens of our outraged county. Party lines were forgotten, love of country was supreme, courage and determination in behalf of law and order were written in unmistakable terms, at the polls in the hands of the voters, and in thunder tones condemned assassination, picked juries, high taxes, misappropriation of funds and all kinds of lawlessness. This was and is the voice of the people. It was not the voice of either party; both Republicans and Democrats are due the praise of all the good people of Kentucky. The people nominated the ticket, the people, regardless of politics, elected the ticket. No one man can take all the glory. Each and all of the candidates and their friends made a whole-souled fight for the entire ticket and stood like stone walls for right and for their country. Each and all of them deserve praise and have my heartiest applause and sincerest thanks. I owe a great debt of gratitude to my supporters, and I now promise to do all within my power to carry out the promises and the pledges made you in my platform and in my speech of acceptance.

My foes and my friends shall receive the same treatment at my hands. In my official acts I shall endeavor to give each exact justice, no more, no less.

It shall be my highest aim to restore peace and prosperity to Breathitt county and give the whole people an administration that will protect all the citizens alike, and give every man a square deal.

Thanking my friends who made this victory possible, by their votes, I remain, Your humble servant,
S. S. TAULBEE.

Congratulations to Breathitt.
To Kentuckians one of the most important elections held was the contest in Breathitt county, where the Hargis regime, masquerading as Democrats, have controlled Jackson and Breathitt county with a rod of iron. Lawlessness has there been rampant, assassination frequent. With the insolence of Tweed, those accused by popular opinion of these crimes have asked: "What are you going to do about it?" The people of Breathitt have answered by defeating the so-called Democratic ticket, which was in no true sense a Democratic ticket, simply using that name because they had control of the Democratic organization, and elected the Fusion ticket by a majority which, as far as could be learned Tuesday night, will run over five hundred.

Neither the fight in Philadelphia nor in Cincinnati was more bitter nor as dangerous for those who took part in it as the fight in Breathitt. To the Fusion ticket and those who led it to victory, the people of the mountains, the people of the State, owe praise and congratulation.

This election means much to the people of Breathitt. It means the dawning of a brighter era, the enforcement of the law, the safety of life and property. The result in neither Philadelphia nor Cincinnati, New York or any other city meant as much to the residents of that city as did the result of this election to the people of Breathitt. To them today we extend the congratulations of the people of the Blue Grass.—Lexington Herald.
